Proposal

All of the materials to be digitized are monographs written by northern Illinois authors. Although many of the most famous Illinois authors have their materials digitized and accessible, this project seeks to make available other less well known authors, and fits firmly within the theme of "Illinois Culture and Heritage." The selection of authors has been made to cover a wide range of subject matter from comprehensive treatment of topics to personal papers. This grouping of authors was selected to expand the awareness of Illinois authors beyond the most well known and add depth to the corpus of Illinois authors currently digitized.
