

Meg Miner's contribution to the session titled "The Illinois Wesleyan University Digitization Experience" provided an overview of six collections created from archives and special collections holdings and discussed project issues such as searching across different platforms, staffing, funding, and preservation. The projects highlighted were:

- The Argus - (1894 - present)
- Historical Photographs of IWU
- Illinois Women in Education Online Exhibit
- John Wesley Powell Collection of Pueblo Pottery
- Student Art Purchase Award
- World War II Correspondence

Links to these projects are available at

<http://www2.iwu.edu/library/resources/DigitalCollections.shtml>