

Product	Description	Cost	Additional Information
Adobe Captivate (Windows)	Captivate builds and edits interactive software demonstrations. Software includes a storyboard view and captioning, and the ability to make interactive quizzes.	Educational rate: $249	More information, including a free trial, available at http://www.adobe.com/devnet/captivate/
Articulate Presenter (Windows)	Allows users to quickly create Flash-based presentations and e-learning courses from PowerPoint presentations.	Pricing from $699	See http://www.articulate.com/products/presenter.php for more information, including a 30 day demo.
Audacity (Windows, Mac, Linux)	Audacity is free, open source software for recording, splicing and editing sound clips.	Free	http://audacity.sourceforge.net/
CamStudio (Windows)	CamStudio can record all screen and audio activity on your computer and create AVI video files or streaming Flash videos.	Free	http://camstudio.org/
Camtasia Studio (Windows)	Offers picture-in-picture capability, pan and zoom, captioning, transitions, storyboard view and more. Users can record, edit and share videos.	Educational rate: $179	Free 30 day trial available at http://www.techsmith.com/download/camtasia-trial.asp
Free Audio Editor (Windows)	Free software for audio editing and mastering. The program contains everything you need to create great sounding recordings and audio CDs, including professional tools for recording, analysis and editing.	Free	http://www.free-audio-editor.com/
Jing (Windows, Mac)	Free software that makes it easy for the inexperienced user to start creating good quality screenshots and videos.	Free	http://www.jingproject.com/
ScreenFlow (Mac)	This popular Mac screen recorder outputs to QuickTime; it offers pan and zoom, powerful editing tools and callout features.	$99	http://www.telestream.net/screen-flow/overview.htm