Traffic Sources (cont.):
The top search engines directing traffic to the Collections are 1) Google; 2) Yahoo; & 3) Bing

The top non-search engines directing traffic are 1) Facebook; 2) Wikipedia; & 3) Flickr Specialty blogs (such as cinematreasures.org [historical movie theaters], swedishamericanhist.org [Swedish-American History], blog.hemings.com [Classic Cars], and songbook1.wordpress.com [American Song Book] push traffic to the Collections, with visitors trailing off after initial posts. Genealogy blogs and discussion groups are also sources of traffic, mostly in late summer and less in early fall.

Keywords
This ranking removes keyword searches resulting in access to the CARLI Digital Collections homepage (such as CARLI, CARLI digital collections, CARLI collection of collections, etc.). The analysis took into account slight variations in wording and word placement.

The top keywords/phrases used to access the CARLI collections via search engines were:

1. pullman car floor plans
2. graphic design projects for students
3. peoria historical society
4. Illinois wesleyan university yearbooks
5. IDOT chicago traffic photographs

Most keyword phrases resulted in fewer than 10 new visits, indicating that searchers use a variety of keywords to locate the same collections.

Word that appeared frequently in the search phrases were:

1. Chicago
2. Pullman
3. Century of Progress
4. Yearbooks
5. Art
6. Sullivan
7. Railroads
8. Images
9. Civil War
10. Peoria

This summary was created by the CARLI Digital Collections Users' Group (DCUG) based on data derived from the Traffic Sources reports in Google Analytics.
