Discussion:

- Several of the team members who attended LOEX reported back on their experiences.
- Lorna mentioned the possibility of using UIS as the forum location.
- The discussion then moved to pushing the date back for forum from July to November 2008. The team decided to postpone the forum to early November to give time to secure a keynote speaker and finalize break-out sessions.
- The forum theme will be: "Social Technology and Library Instruction"
- Ideas for forum: Jenny Levine from ALA as keynote speaker. Possible break-out sessions on: clickers, wikis (Molly's LOEX presentation), Facebook/MySpace, Second Life, games for library instruction (WIU?), VuFind.

Action Items:

1. Lorna will contact Jenny Levine at ALA to find out if she is available for a November forum.
2. We will ask Molly to plan to give a break-out session on wikis similar to her LOEX presentation.
3. Amy, Chad, Susan and Joe will experiment with clickers over the summer and plan for a possible break-out session.
4. Kathleen will research library instruction ideas with Facebook and MySpace.
5. All team members should brainstorm/listen for other ideas.
