00:32:18 Ted Schwitzner, CARLI (he/him/his): Found on our documentation page for cataloging and tech services, <https://www.carli.illinois.edu/products-services/i-share/physical-res-man>

00:34:30 Gail Heideman - Knox College: Is there a way to see what I have in my local or online folders?

00:35:47 Gail Heideman - Knox College: I've lost track of what is in both!

00:39:32 Ted Schwitzner, CARLI (he/him/his): That's a good discussion question.

00:40:36 Gail Heideman - Knox College: So, my local save file has a number of things that I think are completed, but they still say "In Process". Should I be removing them, or should they have another status?

00:41:43 Gail Heideman - Knox College: I have exported them all to Alma.

00:42:12 Ted Schwitzner, CARLI (he/him/his): At some institutions, the online and/or local save file may be used if copy catalogers need to refer their work to a supervisor.

00:42:34 Gail Heideman - Knox College: All but one have a C under Export & Produce

00:43:12 Ted Schwitzner, CARLI (he/him/his): C means that the export is complete

00:43:20 Gail Heideman - Knox College: Yeah, that one isn't done yet.

00:44:33 Ruth Lindemann (she/her): What does the F mean?

00:45:40 Ruth Lindemann (she/her): In the export list

00:46:00 Ruth Lindemann (she/her): No my bad, update list. Thanks!

00:55:56 Gail Heideman - Knox College: Is there a reason to batch delete in OCLC rather than Alma?

00:56:48 Jodi Craiglow: I thought CARLI set up an auto-update.

00:57:59 Gail Heideman - Knox College: It isn't an instant delete, but I've spot checked and it is usually gone the next day.

00:59:41 Ted Schwitzner, CARLI (he/him/his): <https://www.carli.illinois.edu/products-services/i-share/physical-res-man/oclc-data-sync>

01:00:36 Ted Schwitzner, CARLI (he/him/his): The data sync on physical holdings runs each morning at 5:00 a.m. OCLC processes these files promptly.

01:05:48 Gail Heideman - Knox College: I have done that before importing. Just small corrections, usually

01:07:19 Ted Schwitzner, CARLI (he/him/his): ALL Original Cataloging should be done in Connexion.

01:07:36 Susan Howell: We do our original cataloging in Connexion as well.

01:08:20 Gail Heideman - Knox College: Do you use separate login accounts if you have different people using Connexion?

01:10:20 Ted Schwitzner, CARLI (he/him/his): Exceptions to the original cataloging rule:

- * creating reserves records
- * creating records for equipment
- * creating brief bibs for acquisitions

01:15:12 Gail Heideman - Knox College: I probably stay online longer than I need to
