

00:22:03 Lori Thompson: Good assumption! All new to me.

00:28:29 Stephanie Fletcher: collocation?

00:28:35 Ted Schwitzner, CARLI (he/him/his): Collocation!

00:29:11 Stephanie Fletcher: disambiguation!

00:55:43 Lori Thompson: Yes, clear

01:07:34 Ted Schwitzner, CARLI (he/him/his): So it seems that notes in authority records haven't undergone RDA updates to abbreviations.

01:30:34 Ted Schwitzner, CARLI (he/him/his): Genre & Form Terms

01:32:09 Ted Schwitzner, CARLI (he/him/his): "Guidelines on Subject Access to Individual Works of Fiction, Drama, Etc"

01:32:46 Gail Heideman - Knox College: Is there a way to get from an authority file to a Bib record that you are editing or creating?

01:35:35 Ted Schwitzner, CARLI (he/him/his): That sounds like the kind of thing that someone might have created a macro to do. (E.g., copy a 1XX from an open authority record to the open bib record.)

01:35:51 Ted Schwitzner, CARLI (he/him/his): That would be a good question for the folks on the OCLC-CAT list

01:49:36 Lori Thompson: Very interesting

01:50:46 Lori Thompson: Very informative. Appreciate all your work!

01:51:09 Stephanie Fletcher: really helpful, thanks!

01:51:29 Gail Heideman - Knox College: Thanks, Brent!

01:51:52 Lori Thompson: I think that would be a great topic for another day. I would join!

01:51:52 Renata Schneider: That'd be great

01:53:14 Lori Thompson: I have to go but THANK YOU ALL

01:53:28 Renata Schneider: Thanks, Brent

01:53:35 Juanita: Thank you.
