

LSFY 101 Research Day

What sources did you explore today? What's interesting about them?

Choose two items from the different sources you investigated; compare and contrast. (Consider questions like: who created these sources and why? When were they created? What can I learn from looking at these sources together that I can't learn from one by itself?)